

ara

directory of suppliers

Cloud Storage

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

PMD Magnetics

PMD Magnetics is a specialist reseller of data management solutions, established in the UK in 1977. We provide a complete range of data storage, backup and archive technologies to meet today's data management challenges.

Preservica

Preservica is a world leader in digital preservation technology, preserving tens of millions of incredible digital artefacts for future generations

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

Digital Archiving

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible.

Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

PMD Magnetics

PMD Magnetics is a specialist reseller of data management solutions, established in the UK in 1977. We provide a complete range of data storage, backup and archive technologies to meet today's data management challenges.

Preservica

Preservica is a world leader in digital preservation technology, preserving tens of millions of incredible digital artefacts for future generations

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownsWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections - and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

Digital Preservation

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

Preservica

Preservica is a world leader in digital preservation technology, preserving tens of millions of incredible digital artefacts for future generations.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond.

Collections Management Software

Axiell

Axiell provides software and services which help organisations to organise and share knowledge with the world including archive collections management solutions.

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownswWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections – and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

Software Solutions

a.k.a.® by Synercon

a.k.a.® software is used to compile and publish taxonomies, records classification schemes, thesauri, and retention schedules.

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible.

Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements. Digirati

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

PMD Magnetics

PMD Magnetics is a specialist reseller of data management solutions, established in the UK in 1977. We provide a complete range of data storage, backup and archive technologies to meet today's data management challenges.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownsWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections – and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

Environmental Monitoring and Control

Littlemore Scientific (ELSEC)

Littlemore Scientific Engineering Company (ELSEC) is a medium sized company formerly based at Littlemore on the outskirts of Oxford, UK

Conservation

Littlemore Scientific (ELSEC)

Littlemore Scientific Engineering Company (ELSEC) is a medium sized company formerly based at Littlemore on the outskirts of Oxford, UK

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond.

Willard
Conservation Equipment Engineers

Willard Conservation Ltd

Willard Conservation Ltd's extensive range of tools and equipment developed during more than forty years of co-operation with conservation professionals is noted for durability, reliability, high quality and elegant clean-cut design

Records Management

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

DeepStore

DeepStore provides an extremely secure, PD5454 compliant, low risk storage solution. We are the preferred choice of many Archivists, Records Managers, Librarians, Museum Curators and Historic Environment

Forster Ecospace Ltd

Ecospace's FOREG range of shelving systems is manufactured to the highest quality and has been specifically designed to meet the very varied requirements of archives, libraries, museums and galleries

Preservica

Preservica is a world leader in digital preservation technology, preserving tens of millions of incredible digital artefacts for future generations

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

Electronic Documents

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

DeepStore

DeepStore provides an extremely secure, PD5454 compliant, low risk storage solution. We are the preferred choice of many Archivists, Records Managers, Librarians, Museum Curators and Historic Environment..

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

Scanning-Digital Specialists

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible.

Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

Access Digital

Access Digital is a team of digitisation experts based at the University for the Creative Arts. We are professionals in information management, photography and digital media and have many years of experience working in higher education, culture and the arts.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownsWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections - and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond. Microfilm/Photographic Services
Abergower

Microfilm/Photographic Services

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond.

Zeuschel UK Ltd

Zeuschel UK are sole UK distributor for Zeuschel, the leading specialist provider of digital and analogue storage systems for documentation and archive management. We have installed Zeuschel systems in most of the National Libraries and Archives in the UK and Ireland.

Digitization

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements

Access Digital

Access Digital is a team of digitisation experts based at the University for the Creative Arts. We are professionals in information management, photography and digital media and have many years of experience working in higher education, culture and the arts.

Digirati

Digirati is a digital consultancy providing a full range of services from strategy, design, development to ongoing support.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections - and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond.

Zeuschel UK Ltd

Zeuschel UK are sole UK distributor for Zeuschel, the leading specialist provider of digital and analogue storage systems for documentation and archive management. We have installed Zeuschel systems in most of the National Libraries and Archives in the UK and Ireland.

Consultants

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible. Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

Book Scanning

Abergower

We at Abergower provide business information services that allow our customers in London, Edinburgh and Glasgow to get precise information from paper, books, maps, plans, archive material and electronic files as efficiently as possible.

Our core principle is to allow our clients to release the value of the valuable and significant assets that they have locked away in their paper and electronic archive systems.

We deliver our services in the most professional and customer focused way and we can offer a combination of services that can precisely meet the most demanding requirements.

Access Digital

Access Digital is a team of digitisation experts based at the University for the Creative Arts. We are professionals in information management, photography and digital media and have many years of experience working in higher education, culture and the arts.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

TownswWeb Archiving

We provide an expert digitisation service for archives, library and museum collections - and specialise in working with very fragile and timeworn items.

Zeutschel UK Ltd

Zeutschel UK are sole UK distributor for Zeutschel, the leading specialist provider of digital and analogue storage systems for documentation and archive management. We have installed Zeutschel systems in most of the National Libraries and Archives in the UK and Ireland.

Shelving & Storage Systems

Bruynzeel Storage Systems Ltd

Bruynzeel Storage Systems Ltd (formed by the merger of Bruynzeel and Nordplan Qubiqa brands) is Europe's leading manufacturer of versatile and space-saving storage solutions for archives, offices, libraries and museums. Serving public and private sector clients, our focus is on providing storage systems that combine space efficiency with accessibility.

DeepStore

DeepStore provides an extremely secure, PD5454 compliant, low risk storage solution. We are the preferred choice of many Archivists, Records Managers, Librarians, Museum Curators and Historic Environment.

ECOSPACE Forster Ecospace Ltd

Ecospace's FOREG range of shelving systems is manufactured to the highest quality and has been specifically designed to meet the very varied requirements of archives, libraries, museums and galleries.

PMD Magnetics

PMD Magnetics is a specialist reseller of data management solutions, established in the UK in 1977. We provide a complete range of data storage, backup and archive technologies to meet today's data management challenges.

Rackline

Rackline have over 35 years' experience in the design, manufacture and install of high density storage system for Archives and Records areas throughout the UK.

R3store Studios

R3store Studios is a specialist company in the world of Audio Visual Archive. Offering a complete 360 service from Curation to Production we can help you with anything to do with your footage archive.

SDS Heritage

SDS Heritage specialises in digitally converting publications, reports, minutes, journals, photographs, historic books, and general archives of associations, institutions, organisations, clubs and individual establishments onto CD-ROM, DVD and the Internet.

Tufferman

Tufferman is a leading UK supplier of warehouse shelving and racking systems. We specialise in cost effective archive shelving systems and offer a next day delivery

WAAS Digital

We are a Midlands-based accredited archive and archaeology service with over 25 years' experience in supplying professional digital and filmic archival photography, conservation, and storage services to archives, museums, libraries, archaeology and historic environment record departments, the wider heritage sector and beyond.

Archives & Records
Association
UK & Ireland

ara
directory of suppliers

Archives and Records Association
Prioryfield House, 20 Canon Street, Taunton, Somerset TA1 1SW
Tel: 01823 327030 Web: www.archives.org.uk Email: ara@archives.org.uk

Come and join us...

